WoodGreen Seniors' Active Living Centre Presents:

Neruda is a 2016 biographical drama film. Mixing history and fiction, the film shows the dramatic events of the suppression of Communists in Chile and how Pablo Neruda, poet, diplomat, politician and Nobel Prize winner had to go on the run, eventually escaping on horseback over the Andes. Gael Garcia Bernal plays the policeman tasked with arresting the poet. Among many diplomatic posts, President Salvador Allende appointed him as Chile's ambassador to France.

Neruda is available to watch on Kanopy for free with a valid Toronto Public Library Account
